(FAQs)

4. What does "ethically sourced" mean?

'Ethically Sourced,' means that all of our hair is procured with the highest integrity from the most transparent and reputable methods possible. In the industry of natural hair extensions, many companies do not disclose or are not aware of how human hair may be taken or forcefully influenced by women in third-world countries. At Remy & Virgin, we are the source; all of our hair is willingly donated as part of India's daily religious temple ceremonies. The temples then auction the hair, and the money are recycled back into the same communities for betterment

5. How do I know if the hair is Remy?

Remy hair will have a silky, natural shine, and the strands will feel soft and smooth. The cuticles are intact and aligned, which prevents tangling and ensures longevity.
